DATE: 19 January 1951

1. A Dr. Alexander Ralfalvy, a Hungarian physician in exile who was formerly employed by CIC in Austria (1945-1949), has reported the following to a source of this Office.

(a) A former Budapest lawyer named Charles NEY, and said to be a direct descendant of Marshal, is now living somewhere in the French Zone of Austria after having managed a CIC training school to the extent of a $100,000 indebtedness.

(b) NEY was a rabid pro-Nazi Hungarian and served during the war as a lieutenant colonel in the SS. After the war, he is said to have been arrested by the US authorities and convicted as a war criminal.

(c) Subsequently, he became an informer for CIC and worked for them in Austria. He was put in charge of a CIC training school where he personally trained 50 to 60 persons for CIC work. A $36,000 monthly budget was allocated for this school, and NEY had a free hand in the operation. After going into the red for approximately $100,000, he fled to the French Zone.
